Honorable Paul G. Rogers
House of Representatives
Washington, D. C. 20515

Dear Mr. Rogers:

Many thanks for your letter of 20 May 1970 regarding [REDACTED]

This will confirm, as was discussed in part with Mr. John Darlson, your Administrative Assistant, by [REDACTED] of this office, that the Central Intelligence Agency does not utilize students for gathering information in foreign countries.

I am glad that you brought [REDACTED] obviously well-motivated offer to our attention and want to assure you that his willingness and the willingness of his daughter to assist us is appreciated.

Sincerely,

John M. Maury
Legislative Counsel
